

Intermediate and Advanced Fiction Writing Seminar

Fall of 2016 and the Spring of 2017

Middle Grade, Young Adult, and Adult Fiction

Day and Time to be Decided by Participants

Instructor

Peter Johnson

35 years of experience teaching college creative writing.

Author of four books of poetry, one collection of stories, and five novels.

Winner of the 2001 James Laughlin Award for poetry and the Paterson Award for Fiction.

His poetry and fiction have received creative writing grants from the National Endowment on the Arts and the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts.

Edited a literary periodical for nine years.

The Seminar

Limited to five people.

10 weeks, 2 ½ hours per meeting.

2 one-hour individual conferences outside of workshop.

By “intermediate” I mean anyone who has tried to tackle a short story or novel.

Advice on publishing.

Final, written exit evaluation by the instructor.

For more details on instructor, go to peterjohnsonya.com or write to pjohnson@providence.edu

Costs: $1000 for ten week workshop. $100 per 2 ½ hour class.